50X1-HUM

1. The Albanian Minister in Moscow, Mihail Prifti, who was Secretary-General of the Albanian Council of Ministers from 1945 to 1947, has recently been appointed Albanian Minister to Warsaw (in addition to his duties in Moscow).
2. On 13 April 1949 Prifti was ordered by the Albanian Government to present his letters of credit to the Polish Government and negotiate for the supply of 65,000 carbines (through the good offices of the Soviet Government).
3. Prifti is at the same time to discuss with the Poles the supply of the following articles for Albania (forming part of the requirements listed in Polish-Albanian Commercial Agreement signed by Konstantin Tasko):
 - a. 52,000 lamp bulbs
 - b. 24,000 cubic meters of soft wood
 - c. 11,000 cubic meters of hard wood
 - d. 47,000 articles of furniture (chairs, tables, etc.)
4. Prifti, who reached Warsaw on 18 April, is also to discuss with the Poles the possibility of Albanians' obtaining training in Poland as specialists in the following four callings: pharmacists (44), printers (18), military doctors and dentists (25), and agricultural engineers (21).
